

The Shield of Athena Family Services & it's Annual Art Auction

Founded in 1991, The Shield of Athena Family Services is a non profit community organisation that provides specialized multilingual services that includes a Montreal and Laval office, a shelter for women and their children, and several public awareness campaigns for the prevention of family violence. Last year, through its many programs and services, it reached out to 16,000 people. The Shield's Annual Art Auction enables the organisation to continue its services and grow as an organisation.

Our 17th Annual Art Auction to benefit women and children who are victims of family violence, will be held on November 7, 2010 at the Marché Bonsecours in Old Montreal. This year's auction will bring together over 100 works, including paintings, sculptures and jewellery from approximately 40 artists from local and international origins.

Our Silent Auction is a growing part of this exciting event and we are now soliciting items. The Shield depends on the generous support of businesses and friends such as yourself to donate to our Silent Auction.

Your donation will give you the following benefits

- Your business will receive high visibility
- Your name will be printed in the Souvenir Program and Catalogue distributed to 400 guests.

- Documentation about your business can be displayed at the event i.e: business cards, posters, etc.
- You will receive acknowledgement as a donor on our website.
- You will be making a contribution to a fantastic cause.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

There are two ways by which you can make a contribution.

- Donate to our Silent Auction: we will gladly accept : Products, Gift Certificates and Services.
- Support the event by placing an ad in our Souvenir Program

When you donate an item to our Silent Auction you will receive 2 complimentary tickets to the event.

We thank you for your consideration and we look forward to hearing from you.

Donations for Silent Auction must be received by October 22nd 2010*
